Terms of Use

Ocean Genome Legacy Center, Northeastern University, Nahant, USA

By accessing content from the Ocean Genome Legacy Center (OGL), including but not limited to all data, documents, and website content, you accept and agree to be bound by the following Terms of Use:

(1) Intellectual Property: All content made available to you by OGL (the “Content”)—including but not limited to original data, text, images, audio, video, data, software, content presented in multimedia formats—is the intellectual property of Northeastern University (“Northeastern”). Northeastern retains all rights, including copyrights, to the Content, subject to the limitation that copyright and other proprietary rights may be held by individuals or entities other than, or in addition to, Northeastern. To the extent data and other content made available to you by OGL is not protectable by copyright, your access to said content is conditioned upon your acceptance of the terms of this User Agreement, including the use restrictions set forth below.

(2) Limited General License: You will not reproduce, distribute, display, perform, or engage in any other use of the Content, except as necessary to accomplish a bona fide, noncommercial educational or research purpose (“Licensed Use”). Copying or redistributing OGL Content in any manner for commercial use, including commercial publication, or for personal gain, is strictly prohibited without specific written consent. If you engage in a Licensed Use of the Content, you will make appropriate attribution of the Content. A citation that includes the language “Ocean Genome Legacy Center, Northeastern University” will be sufficient attribution for purposes of this User Agreement. For Content obtained from OGL’s website, you shall additionally reference the website’s URL, <https://ogl.northeastern.edu>. For content obtained from OGL’s Arctos database, you shall additionally reference the database URL, <https://arctos.database.museum>.

This agreement applies to OGL Content obtained from Arctos as well as from secondary biodiversity information sources (e.g., OBIS, GBIF, GGBN). OGL records obtained from such sources are suitable for data discovery, but should be verified against the OGL Arctos database, which will include the most up-to-date information.

(3) Use of Third-Party Content: To the extent the OGL Content incorporates the copyrighted material of third parties (“Third-Party Content”), you agree to make only such Licensed Uses of said Third-Party Content as are consistent with copyright law. Northeastern does not guarantee that any use of Third-Party Content will not infringe the rights of the content owners.

(4) Disclaimer of Warranties/ Limitation of Liability: Northeastern makes the Content available free of charge and to the fullest extent permitted by law disclaims all warranties of any kind (express, implied, or otherwise) regarding the Content, including but not limited to implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, and noninfringement. You access OGL’s Content and/or website at your own sole risk and in no event shall Northeastern or its affiliates, agents, officers, directors, or employees be liable to you, in contract, tort, or otherwise, for any damages of any kind arising out of your access to the Content and/or the website.

(5) Indemnification: You agree to indemnify and hold harmless Northeastern and its affiliates, agents, officers, directors, and employees from and against any and all liability, loss, claims, damages, costs, and/or actions (including attorneys’ fees) arising from your use of the Content, OGL’s website, OGL’s database, or the Ocean Genome Legacy Center’s collection.
